

CB RICHARD ELLIS RENEWS OFFICIAL PARTNER ROLE AT CORENET GLOBAL EUROPEAN SUMMIT

Event to explore CSR issues for senior property professionals

London, 21 May 2007 - CB Richard Ellis has renewed its agreement with CoreNet Global as the Official Summit Partner on the annual European Summit, which this year will be held in London (17-19 September, 2007) and takes the theme "Greening the bottom line: making sustainability count".

Matthew Pullen, Global Corporate Services, CB Richard Ellis, comments, "CoreNet Global consistently provides the innovation and learning that is key to the evolution of Corporate Real Estate. By focusing this year's summit on the green agenda, CoreNet Global are at the heart of an issue which will drive the real estate agenda for years to come. We applaud their contribution and are proud to be Official Summit Partner for 2007."

Christine MacKenzie, Director, Global Operations, comments, "we're absolutely thrilled that CB Richard Ellis has chosen to partner with us again. Their decision indicates how well regarded the annual event has become among industry leaders, and the knowledge and insight of the team at CB Richard Ellis always complements and adds a lot of added value to the programme".

The sixth annual CoreNet Global European Summit will explore the implications of the "triple bottom line" of people, planet and profit in terms of multi nationals operating in the global economy, and their corporate and social responsibilities.

The conference will look at the economics of sustainable workforces and green buildings in terms of balancing commercial success, and focus on the responsibilities of senior property professionals and multi national occupiers in Europe with regard to issues such as fuel consumption and alternative energy solutions.

The event will take place over three days, commencing with a welcome reception on the evening of Monday 17th September. The following two days will comprise keynote presentations from industry leaders, seminars and workshops, study trips in and around London, networking opportunities, working lunches, a gala dinner and a closing cocktail reception. Full details of the speaker programme will be announced shortly.

The annual event is now established as the key calendar date for corporate real estate professionals in Europe, reflecting CoreNet Global's commitment to the delivery of relevant educational and research programmes surrounding the strategic management of corporate real estate.

News

With CoreNet Global universally recognized as the leading forum for networking and knowledge sharing, Summit delegates will be able to take advantage of a full series of activity-based seminars, workshops and study trips in and around London. The programme also includes various networking opportunities, cocktail receptions, working lunches and a gala dinner.

A series of Keynote presentations will also be delivered by a number of leading industry figures and other inspirational speakers, who will share the benefits of their experience in a truly global economy. Full details of the speaker programme will be announced shortly.

CoreNet Global was formed to provide the industry with a single and powerful voice. It is now the largest and most comprehensive representative body of property interests around the world. CoreNet Global members manage $1.2 trillion (US) in worldwide corporate assets totalling 700-billion square feet of owned and leased office, industrial and other space.

Registration for the London Summit is now open at www.corenetglobal.org/london

Ends

For further information, please contact

Tony Nokling on 00 44 207 269 9359