

SPEAKER BIO:

Mike Hussey

Mike Hussey is Managing Director – London Portfolio. He joined Land Securities in July 2002 and joined the Main Board in October 2004. He is responsible for all Land Securities' activities in their London holdings, which amount to over £7.3bn. He is also Director responsible for Land Securities' Urban Community Development programme and the environment.

From 1997 to June 2002, he was at Canary Wharf Group where they contracted approximately 11.0m sq ft of new space and transacted over 9.5m sq ft..

As well as being on the Board of Management of the BCO, he sits on a number of Committees and representative bodies including Chairman of the British Property Federation Regeneration and Development Committee, President of The City Property Association and Executive Director of the New West End Company.