

SPEAKER BIO:

Nadine Jenkins

Nadine Jenkins is Head of Sustainability, Lend Lease Retail & Communities, UK. Nadine first joined Lend Lease in 1999 and has close to 12 years experience in the planning and development industries. She is passionate about aligning business with ecological and social imperatives/objectives and delivering a robust triple bottom line for Lend Lease.

Before Lend Lease, Nadine worked with local authorities as a Policy Planner, and in Economic Development both in the UK and in New Zealand.

Her experience at Lend Lease includes projects at feasibility and planning stage through to project delivery and transition to asset management. One such achievement was delivering the Community Development initiatives and planning permissions at Touchwood, Solihull.

Nadine is currently producing the 1st UK Sustainability report for the Lend Lease Retail and Communities UK portfolio, integrating sustainability into standard business practice, and improving our performance and market profile on this issue.
