

Alex Hill – Regional Director, CBRE Asia

Alex Hill is Regional Director of Global Corporate Services at CB Richard Ellis, and is responsible for the overall management of key accounts and strategic alliances across Asia. He heads the Corporate Services team in Singapore and is responsible for leading this business line and multi-disciplined teams across the region. His key role is to develop accounts in line with our client's business strategy, focused on providing flexible Real Estate solutions, minimizing occupancy costs and enhancing staff productivity.

Alex's expertise covers transaction management, project management portfolio and space optimization. His goal has always been to maximise real estate value and align our client's business drivers with a strategy for maximum flexibility.

