

George McKay

As head of Colliers International's Corporate Services Division in Asia Pacific, George McKay directs all strategy and operations for this regional service line. George is responsible for Colliers' multinational client accounts in the region, which are serviced via Colliers Corporate Services hubs in Shanghai, Tokyo, Hong Kong, Singapore and Sydney.

George has over twenty years of senior commercial brokerage, account management as well as project and facilities management experience in North America and Asia Pacific. In addition to his role as the Asia Pacific Corporate Services Managing Director, he also serves as Representative Director of Colliers' Korea office and head of Colliers Sustainability and Service Quality Initiatives for Asia.

