

Mia Ranta-aho

Mia Ranta-aho works as Environmental Solutions Manager in Nokia Workplace Resources (WR) where she is responsible for environmental sustainability issues globally in Nokia's real estate and facility services function. Mia leads WR Environmental team and is responsible for direction and strategy for Nokia WR environmental sustainability work as well as key strategic environmental sustainability projects. Before joining Nokia, Mia has worked in the area of Environmental research in Technical Research Centre of Finland. Recently, Mia joined Nokia Markets organization where she works as Senior Environmental Manager for Middle-East and Africa.

